ALERT TO FORM W-2 FILERS

If you fail to follow the requirements stated below, you may be subject to a penalty.

You are required to send 1988 Forms W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, to the Social Security Administration by February 28, 1989, unless you have received an extension of time to file. Otherwise, you may be charged a late filing penalty of $50 for each form that is late, up to a maximum of $100,000 in a calendar year.

In addition, if you will file 250 or more 1988 Forms W-2, you are required to file Copy A on magnetic media unless you have been granted an undue hardship waiver by the IRS. Payers who do not comply with the magnetic media requirements and who are not granted a waiver may be charged a penalty of $50 for each copy not filed, up to a maximum of $100,000 in a calendar year. Note: Payers who file on magnetic media must not send the same data to the Social Security Administration on paper Forms W-2. This will result in duplicate filing and possible penalty notification from the IRS.

If you believe that filing on magnetic media would cause you undue hardship and you want to request that the magnetic media filing requirements be waived, you should file Form 8508, Request for Waiver From Filing Information Returns on Magnetic Media, with the IRS National Computer Center whose address appears at the end of this notice. This form is due at least 90 days before the due date of the return.

If you want to request an extension of time to file on either magnetic media or on paper forms, send a letter to the IRS National Computer Center. Include in the letter your name and address, taxpayer identification number, calendar year for which you are requesting an extension, phone number, type and volume of returns, your reasons for the delay, and whether the extension is required for filing paper forms or magnetic media.
